Farmingville, NY - - On May 2, Supervisor Ed Romaine and Councilwoman Connie Kept attended the Coram Fire Department's Annual Installation Dinner at East Wind in Wading River. Proclamations from the Town Board were presented to outgoing officers and department members with Year of Service milestones, including Peter Covati, who was honored for his 61 years of dedicated service to the department.

Supervisor Romaine said, "I commend the members of the Coram Fire Department who give so much of their time to community service. We all owe them a large debt of gratitude for their dedication, training and hard work which helps to save countless lives every year."

Councilwoman Kept said, "Congratulations to all those who were honored at the dinner, especially Tom Lyon who was honored both for his almost 61 years of service to the department and for his 40 years as Fire Commissioner," said Councilwoman Kept. I extend my thanks to the brave men and women who selflessly dedicate themselves to the service and protection of the Coram community every day."
